

ENTRY FORM

- Entrants must be an executive chef for an acclaimed free standing Louisiana restaurant. Restaurants associated with a luxury country club, resort or hotel are also eligible.
- Restaurant must be member of Louisiana Restaurant Association.
- Institutional chefs, i.e., food service distributors, hospitals, culinary school instructors, caterers or corporate chefs for chains having 10 or more restaurants are not eligible.
- Each chef will be responsible for plating up to five entrées for judges with Louisiana seafood as the main protein.
- A hotel room will be offered for each competing chef the night of the competition. Chefs are responsible for their remaining travel and ingredients costs. Those traveling from more than 100 miles away may be eligible for a $100 travel stipend.
- There are a limited number of spots available and entry forms will be accepted until Friday, April 28, 2017.
- Entries are considered in the order they are received until all spots are filled by eligible participants.
- Contestants will be notified of their eligibility by Friday, May 5, 2017.

Chef's Name

Title

Restaurant Name

City

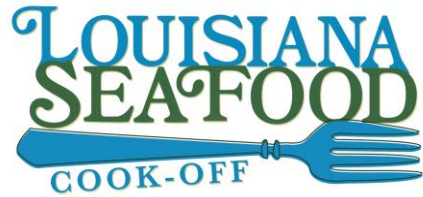

Work Phone

Cell Phone

E-Mail Address

Do you currently have Louisiana or gulf seafood on your menu: Yes No

Are you a member of the Louisiana Restaurant Association: Yes No

What do you love about cooking with Louisiana seafood?

Anything else you would like to tell us about why you would be a great competitor? (Recognition, awards, news stories, your personal journey)

Please return form to Ben Mitchell at the Louisiana Seafood Promotion and Marketing Board via e-mail bmitchell@crt.la.gov by April 28, 2017.